Books 1 and 2 Guides for Parents

Now that your child has started school he/she is setting off on the first stages of the journey into the wonderful world of reading. A supportive and collaborative relationship between school and home is an important part of this journey; however, for parents learning to read was a long time ago.

'Reading at Home – Books 1 and 2' are two simple guides for parents with easy tips and steps to follow as your child starts bringing home reading books to share with you. Written to coincide with the reading levels your child will be working on at different stages, they will help you from the first days at school when reading is a new experience through to offering tips on how to help him/her approach new words and ensure he/she understands the meaning of the story.

Sharing this exciting journey will be a rewarding experience for both you and your child.
